FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

This matter is before the court upon the United States' motion for a final order of forfeiture as to JIMMY ANDRE ROGERS, ("Defendant", "Rogers") who was convicted of possession of a firearm in a drug trafficking crime. A Judgment and Preliminary Order of Forfeiture ("POF") as to Rogers, was filed on June 29, 2011. The record in this case establishes the following:

1. On July 7, 2010, a Federal Grand Jury in the District of South Carolina returned a three count Indictment in which the Defendant, Jimmy Andre Rogers, was charged with possession of a firearm in a drug trafficking crime, in violation of 18 U.S.C § 924(c)(1), being a felon in possession of a firearm, in violation of 18 U.S.C §§ 922(g)(1), 924 (a)(2) and 924(e) and possession with intent to distribute marijuana, in violation of 21 U.S.C § 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(D).

2. The Indictment provided that upon Rogers' conviction, certain property enumerated therein, or equivalent substitute assets, would be subject to forfeiture to the United States, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d), 21 U.S.C. §§ 853, 881 and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c).

3. On March 2, 2011, Rogers entered a guilty plea to Count 1 of the Indictment, charging him with possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1).

4. Based upon Rogers' conviction, the court has determined that the below-described property is subject to forfeiture, in that such property was involved in, Rogers' knowing violations of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1). The court finds that Rogers has an interest in such property, and that this property is subject to forfeiture to the United States pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d).

5. The court has further determined that the government has established the requisite nexus between the said property subject to forfeiture and the offense for which Rogers has been convicted; therefore, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d), the property shall be forfeited to the United States, subject to the provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 853(n) governing third party rights.

6. The court further finds that the United States is entitled to a judgment of forfeiture and possession of the said property pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(g) and Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

7. On June 29, 2011, this court entered the POF as to Rogers, forfeiting all of his right, title and interest in the property described below to the United States.

Firearms/Ammunition:

A. 9mm Keltec Pistol Serial No.: 90538

The POF also provided that following publication and upon adjudication of all third-party interests in the said property, the court would enter a Final Order of Forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C.

§ 853(n).

Beginning on July 1, 2011 and running at least 18 hours per day through July 30, 2011, as required by Rule G(4)(a)(iv)(C) of the Supplemental Rules of Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Action, the United States published notice of the forfeiture on the government website “www.forfeiture.gov”, a website of general circulation within the United States and the State of South Carolina, notifying any person, other than the Defendant in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property that they must file a Petition within sixty (60) days of the notice for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of any alleged legal interest in the property seized.

10. The United States has received no claims or petitions as to the property described below, and the time to file such claims and petitions has passed as provided for by the provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 853(n); therefore, all claims to such property are forever foreclosed and barred.
